Wildlife of Arizona

Description

Photographed in the wild by Jeff Aguilar

The wildlife of Arizona often appears in the early morning before the heat of the day takes hold. From the Grand Canyon to the Sonoran Desert, there are plenty of microclimates for wildlife to thrive. Mostly birds as of now, here is my still-growing collection of Arizona wildlife.

All photos exclusive copyright of Jeff Aguilar

Woodhouseâ??s Scrub-jay, Grand Canyon

Copyright 2025 trav-art.com

Desert Bighorn, Grand Canyon

House Sparrow, Sonoran Desert

trav-art.com

Copyright 2025 trav-art.com

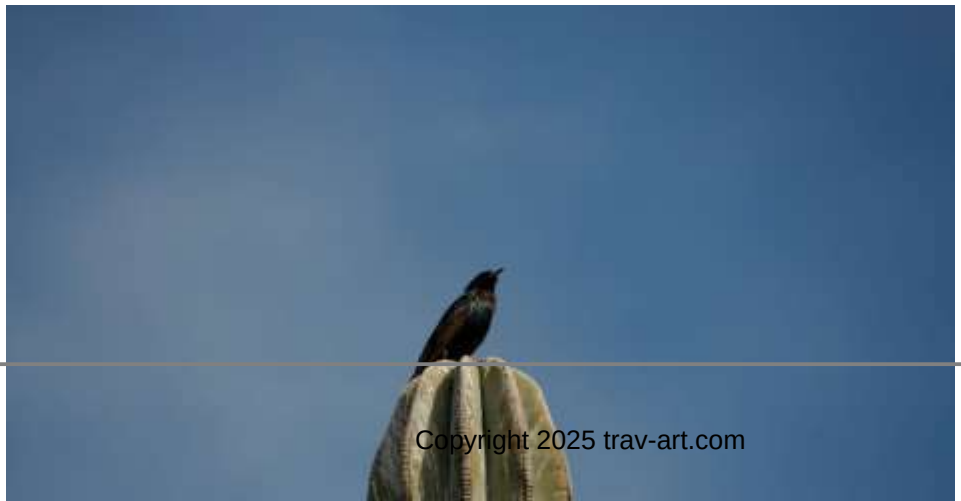

Quagga Mussel, Lake Powell

Woodhouseâ??s Scrub-jay, Grand Canyon

Northern Cardinal, Sonoran Desert

Copyright 2025 trav-art.com

European Starling, Sonoran Desert

Raven, Grand Canyon

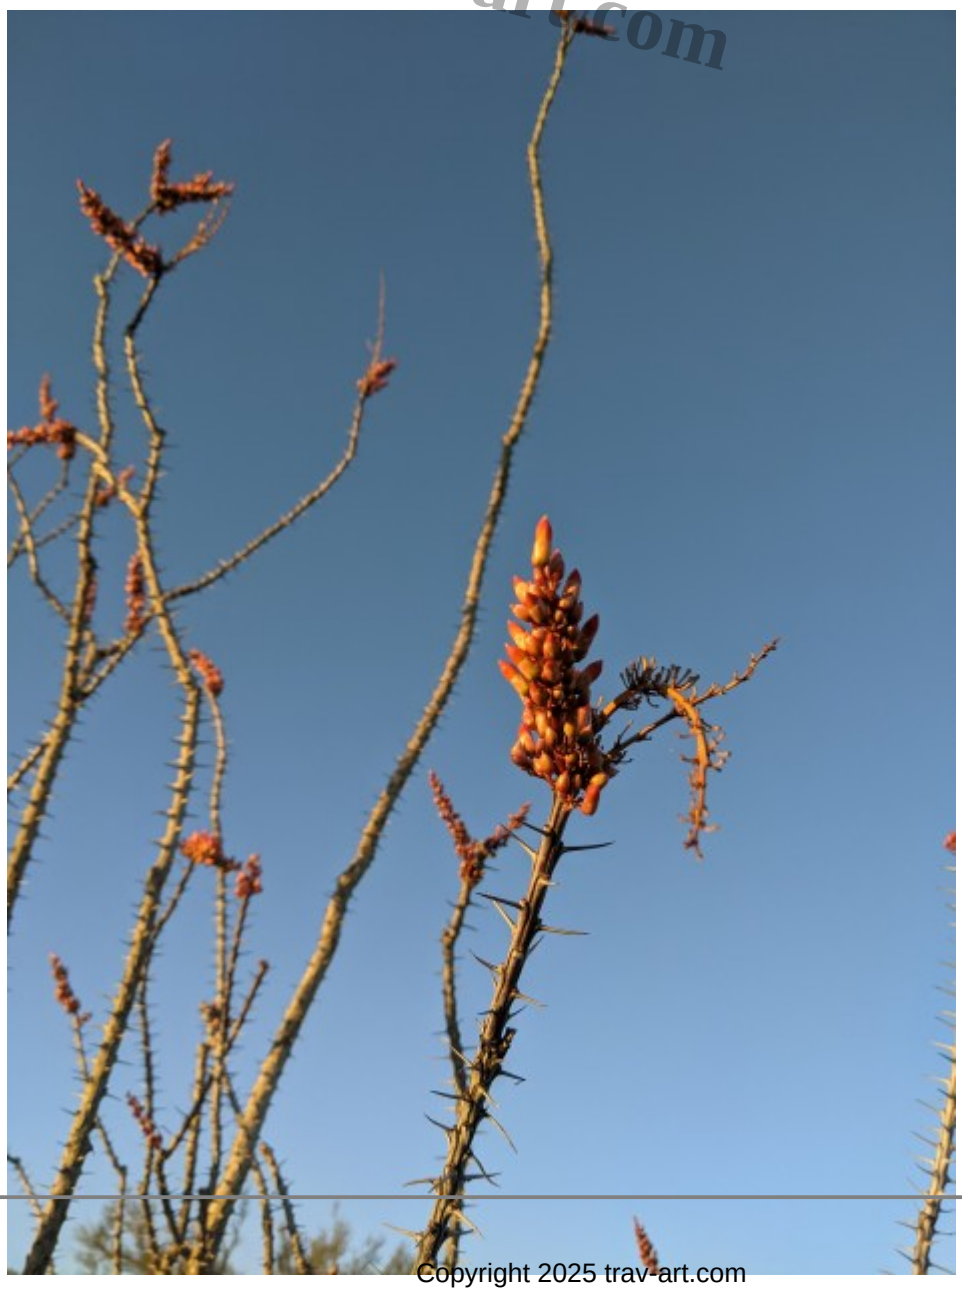

Dove on mesquite tree

Copyright 2025 trav-art.com

Gambelâ??s Quail, Sonoran Desert

trav-art.com

Copyright 2025 trav-art.com

Ocotillo, South Mountain Park

Barrel Cactus, South Mountain Park

Copyright 2025 trav-art.com

Buckhorn Cholla, SMP

Creosote Bush, SMP

Copyright 2025 trav-art.com

Saguaros, South Mountain Park

Brown-spined Prickly Pear, Sedona

trav-art.com

Date Created
May 2, 2022
Author
jsde

Copyright 2025 trav-art.com