

Wildlife of Arizona

Description

The wildlife of Arizona often appears in the early morning before the heat of the day takes hold. From the Grand Canyon to the Sonoran Desert, there are plenty of microclimates for wildlife to thrive. Mostly birds as of now, here is my still-growing collection of Arizona wildlife.

All photos exclusive copyright of Jeff Aguilar

Woodhouse's Scrub-jay, Grand Canyon

Desert Bighorn, Grand Canyon

House Sparrow, Sonoran Desert

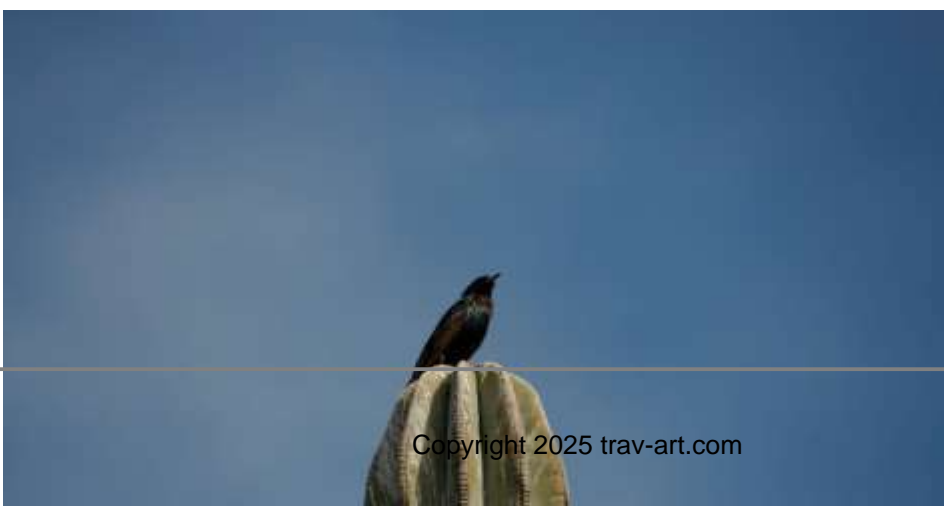

Quagga Mussel, Lake Powell

Woodhouse's Scrub-jay, Grand Canyon

Northern Cardinal, Sonoran Desert

European Starling, Sonoran Desert

Raven, Grand Canyon

Dove on mesquite tree

Gambel's Quail, Sonoran Desert

Ocotillo, South Mountain Park

Barrel Cactus, South Mountain Park

Buckhorn Cholla, SMP

Creosote Bush, SMP

Saguaros, South Mountain Park

Brown-spined Prickly Pear, Sedona

Date Created

May 2, 2022

Author

jsde