

Wildlife of Arkansas

Description

We traveled to Arkansas for the first time in October of 2023. We journeyed its rolling roadways through the Ouachitas and Ozarks and down to the center of the state at Hot Springs, where Arkansas begins to flatten out and eventually meet the Delta country of the Mississippi. In only three days we had a limited amount of time for hiking and wildlife seeking, but we still discovered some interesting animals and plants along the way.

All photos exclusive copyright of Jeff Aguilar

Cloudless Sulfur Butterfly, Garvan Gardens

Groundhog, Near Eureka Springs

Eastern Grey Squirrel, Eureka Springs

Eastern Chipmunk, Hot Springs NP

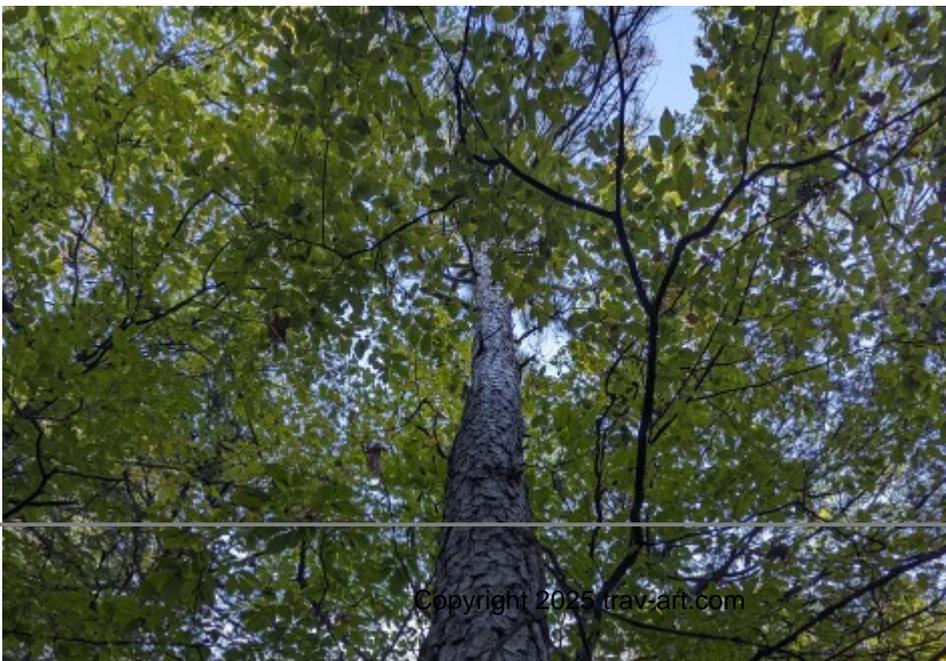

Rough Greensnake, Garvan Gardens

Dogwood, Eureka Springs

American Asters, Hot Springs, NP

Loblolly Pine, Hot Springs

Date Created

January 1, 2024

Author

jsde

trav-art.com