

Wildlife of Utah

Description

Utah has diverse topography ranging from the canyons of the Colorado Plateau to the mountains of the Wasatch and Uinta ranges and the arid salt flats of the western region. Utah is a great place to find reptiles and hidden in red rock canyons are a variety of colorful wildflowers.

All photos exclusive copyright of Jeff Aguilar

Midget Faded Rattlesnake, Arches NP

Desert Cottontail, Arches NP

Raven, Arches NP

Uinta Chipmunk, Arches

Common Side-blotched Lizard, Canyonlands NP

Rock Squirrel, Capitol Reef NP

Cutworm Moth Caterpillar, Bryce Canyon

Collared Lizard, Arches NP

Golden Mantled Ground Squirrel, Capitol Reef

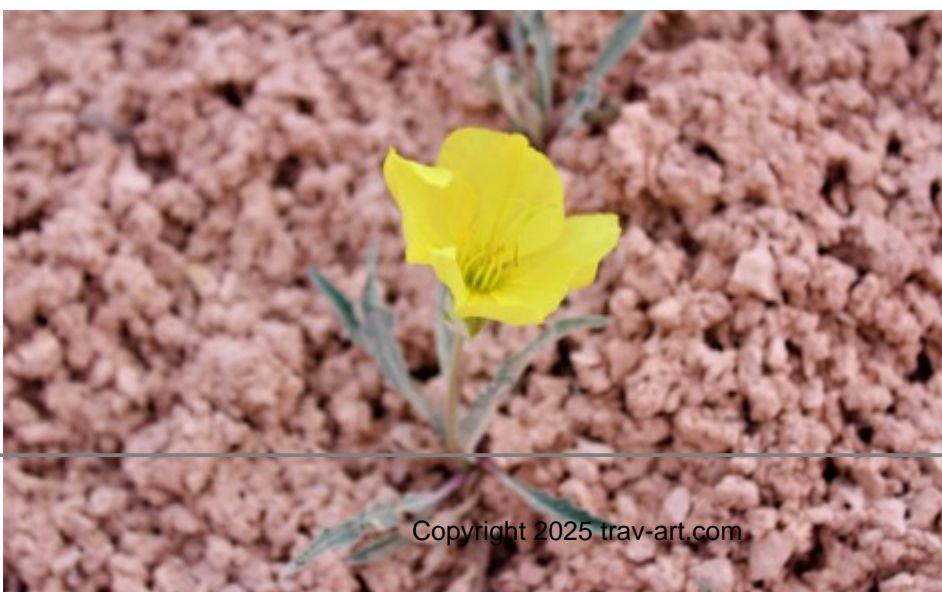

Utah Juniper, Arches NP

Devil's Trumpets, Arches NP art.com

Roundleaf Buffaloberry, Capitol Reef NP

Yellow Primrose, Bryce Canyon NP

Woodâ??s Rose, Bryce Canyon

Pinewoods Geranium, Bryce Canyon

Date Created

September 28, 2022

Author

jsde

trav-art.com